RECOUNTS AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION

Seven requests for recounts were received after the general election — six were for Representative to the General Court races. There was a change in the winner as a result of the recount in Rockingham District No. 16, but no change in any of the other recounts.

A recount of the Sweepstakes and Liquor questions on the Monroe ballot resulted in no change.

Below, in the first column are the figures as officially returned to the Secretary of State. The second column contains the recount figures. The persons elected are designated by asterisks.
