RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the primary, six requests for recounts were received — five republican and one democratic. The recount for Republican County Attorney in Strafford County resulted in the candidate winning the nomination. The recount for Republican State Representative in Rockingham County District 4 was appealed to the Ballot Law Commission — no change occurred as a result of this appeal. Following, in the first column are the figures as officially returned to the Secretary of State. The second column contains the recount figures and the third column contains the results following the Ballot Law Commission hearing.
